Sixth Form Learning Agreement

My studies are important, and I have the right to expect a number of things from my time in St Ivo Sixth Form. These include:

- High quality lessons in my chosen subjects
- Class work and homework that prepares me effectively for exams
- Assistance consistent with exam board guidelines, with the preparation of coursework
- Daily registration and contact with my form tutor
- Help, guidance and support from my form tutor
- Other support from subject teachers and pastoral staff as necessary

In order to ensure that I learn as effectively as possible agree with the terms set out below.

- I will attend all registrations punctually
- I will attend all lessons punctually
- I will always work to the best of my ability
- I will produce all the work required of me in a timely fashion
- I will ensure that if I don't understand something that I will raise the problem with the relevant teacher well ahead of any deadline
- I will meet all deadlines set by subject teachers

I accept that this is a binding agreement.
